

Candlelight at Bush-Holley Historic Site

Cos Cob, CT, November 19, 2015--On Sunday, December 13, the Greenwich Historical Society will open its doors for a once-a-year "candlelight" tour of Bush-Holley House decked out its holiday best. Family-friendly tours led by costumed interpreters are roughly 45 minutes long and focus on Christmas traditions as celebrated by the Bush family in the early nation period, and later by the Holley family, who were residents when the property was known as the center of the Cos Cob art colony in the early 1900s.

Enjoy live holiday music, hot chocolate, seasonal goodies, winter-themed crafts and a special visit with Santa Claus from 5:30–6:30 pm. Appropriate for all ages, admission is free and no reservations are required.

Sunday, December 13, 2015, 5:00 to 7:00 pm

Greenwich Historical Society, Vanderbilt Education Center

39 Strickland Road

Cos Cob, CT 06807

For information, visit www.greenwichhistory.org or call 203-869-6899, Ext. 10.